

Ten Reasons to Become a Pharmacist...

Part-time and full-time positions available.

Help people feel better.

Able to make a difference in a patient's life.

Really clean environment (no bodily fluids).

May work with other medical staff.

Apply material learned in college.

Constantly changing.

Interested in how medications work.

Stable employment.

Talk one-on-one with patients and their caregivers.